I have just finished talking to Bob Starr. (he called collect from lock up)
As you all know by now, the judge has sent Bob's case to a grand jury, so Starr continues to be locked away.

Bob wanted me to tell all of you that he sincerely appreciated everything the militias are doing for him.... he seems in real good spirits.

Bob's wife, Octavia is taking all of this as any good wife would, she is real depressed and not holding up well. I asked him how his financial situation was and he explained that any monetary help in meeting their bills would help to relieve some of his wife's stress.

Bob is very confident, however, he said the part that bothers him the most is not being able to hold his daughter. He said that she got to see him recently and could only press her face against the glass, attempting to touch his hand. This experience seems to be weighing heavy on his mind.

The rest of our conversation was somewhat humorous. Bob stated that he was hoping to be at our meeting in May, he laughed when I told him that I had a great photo of him in handcuffs.

People, I know I have been begging for donations, and some are already coming in. 200 dollars is being sent out tomorrow to cover Octavia's car payment for the month, but we are going to need more to continue to support this family. Bob kept expressing his appreciation for those who are helping monetarily. He's a proud man, that normally would not accept charity, but realizes, that the only hope he has now is to depend on his friends. Please continue to pass the word, so we can make sure this man's family is supported while he is locked away awaiting release.

In closing Bob asked that everyone pray for him. I expect to hear again from him tomorrow. This is a good man and patriot, I know this first hand. The government does not care if they are holding an innocent man, nor do they care that they have totally disrupted his family.

Folks, I ask you to please pray, and please donate what you can to help these people. To those who have already donated in Montana, North Carolina and Alabama, we say thanks from the bottom of our heart. A special thanks to Charlie, Paul and Freedom Headquarters.

In Liberty,
Jeff Randall
